Hello PDK Exec. Bd. member,

Back on Aug. 26th remember when it was sunny and warm and we had a good conversation and wonderful meal at Harriet's B and B? Well, the weather has changed and we are ready to take action steps resulting from your brainstorming. The themes of proficiencies in students, faculty, administrators toward improving teaching, leadership, and learning are guiding our programming. This continues our tie to school improvement and action steps from last yr. and fosters tangible ties by directly supporting districts, universities, and NDE: Wahoo, Crete, Norris, LPS, Waverly, and others as determined by you.

1---Drew---intro. online Paypal registration for events. We will "test" it in the lab and get your input before we go "live." Anastasia--determine PDK Facebook specifics.

2---Melissa---minutes from Aug. 26th

3---Ryan---$ update, plans w/CDs and possible ties to scholarships and centennial uses

4---Research Comm.---update from recent Comm. meeting and finalizing presentation date and specifics by our first "Joekel Scholarship" awardee

5---Jessica and Mike---Oct. 26th event (change from Oct. 3rd b/c of topic, presenters, and online setup)--Interactive presentations by three, NE Teachers of the Year including Bob Feurer, 2011 Awardee who recently joined PDK; and two NE Administrators of the Yr. (tentative). This is a change that we will discuss on Monday.

6---Tim---March 28th event w/UNO at Ashland CC--"The Pros/Cons of Tying Students' Achievement to the Evaluation of Teachers and Administrators." A tremendous activity is developing.

7---Sue and Jackie--we will finalize Dec. 7th plans tied to "21st Century and Leadership" focus that we agreed upon on Aug. 26th. No preparation needs are needed for 9.19th other than revisiting your notes and from Aug. 26th.

8---Harriet, Jessica, and Carrie--determine best options for Fall 2011 and contact new initiates including the 8 EDAD grad. sts. I will provide the initial list.
